Customer Reviews

There is just something about these McLendon boys that just makes me squirm!! I love Matt, Mason and Grey. I just do....Gabbie is one lucky lady!! I will say here, I highly recommend that you read Second Chances before reading this book because nothing will really make sense. You won't understand the family dynamic, the love they share, the deep rooted protective nature of the boys....it just won't work. Go read Second Chances!!! I loved it.....so very much. It was my first read by DL Roan and I have read every book of hers since. This novella is a great addition to the Second Chances book, and it was very fun to catch back up with the gang, including Con and Car (the twins). I love this family and their dynamic. When I reviewed Second Chances originally, I fell in love with this family. Head over heels in love. They are a steamy, romantic and loving family with their own 'issues'. Well, Grey has the issues....he's lucky he has Matt and Mason to ground him. It's no different in this story either. I laugh when I think about the things that Grey does.....all in order to 'protect' Gabbie, when in truth, all he is doing is making a bigger spectacle of the problem at hand. I love Grey!!! Bahahaa!!!!!! I love the premise behind this short novella, which is totally readable in ONE sitting....not just because you get to surround yourself with three amazing men, but also because you get addicted to the actual storyline and love flowing between everyone. The sincerity coursing through this book is legit. I also loved that we got to see more of Hazel, Joe, Nathan and Jake....the base of this amazing and passionate family. But, we learned some things about some other characters as well, (I don't want to give it away) but we got to catch up with some other back stories as well.
