Customer Reviews

This book had many recipes my great grandmother used to cook for us! THANK YOU! Brought tears to our eyes!

tMore German-American style than German. Geared towards common US ingredients and tastes. Not what I was looking for, which was traditional German recipes. It is ok for a small cookbook and reminds me more of Pennsylvania Dutch cooking than German cooking. No photos and how many recipes for potato salad do you really need (there are 8 similar recipes in this slim volume).

The rest of the recipes look very interesting and I look forward to trying them. Probably the first recipe I will try is Beef Pot Roast with beer marinade.

Great cookbook for the price. Lots of recipes, although not very detailed. Great to flip through to get ideas for variations on traditional recipes. I like that it has several versions of different dishes, like spaetzle or dumplings.

This book is very very tiny, could fit in your coat pocket. There are no pictures and it is completely black and white.

I spent some time in Germany and I could not wait to get this book. I was looking for some of the great food we used to get over there. Sadly, this book had none of it. It really doesn't have a lot of recipes I would care to make. There is a wine recipe I might try. If you are looking for a good Schnitzel or pork steak recipe, look some where else. If you are looking to make something that is German and you really don't care what it is, this book will work.

It has great recipes but I gave it as a gift and was disappointed to see it was very small...it fits in your hand it's so tiny. Good content just wasn't what I expected.

Love this cookbook! Being raised with German food this book has so many yummy recipes that are so easy to make! Also bought a Spaetzel maker at the same time!
