Gathering Prey: Prey (The Prey Series Book 25)

Synopsis

A terrifying Lucas Davenport thriller from #1 New York Times bestselling author and Pulitzer Prize winner John Sandford. They call them Travelers. They move from city to city, panhandling, committing no crimes—they just like to stay on the move. And now somebody is killing them. Lucas Davenport's adopted daughter, Letty, is home from college when she gets a phone call from a woman Traveler she'd befriended in San Francisco. The woman thinks somebody's killing her friends, she's afraid she knows who it is, and now her male companion has gone missing. She's hiding out in North Dakota, and she doesn't know what to do. Letty tells Lucas she's going to get her, and, though he suspects Letty's getting played, he volunteers to go with her. When he hears the woman's story, though, he begins to think there's something in it. Little does he know. In the days to come, he will embark upon an odyssey through a subculture unlike any he has ever seen, a trip that will not only put the two of them in danger—but just may change the course of his life. Customer Reviews

I've read all of the Prey books and this 25th one is among the very best of the series. I have been waiting for Letty, Lucas's adopted daughter, to become more of a character in these books and with this one she does. She has a major supporting role to Lucas. We start off with Letty in California, about to leave for the summer as she's just finished her freshman year at Stanford. She sees two young people who are Travelers and gets them some food. They tell her about a Charles Manson like gang operating out of California. The leader's name is Pilate and he has about 20 followers. Letty goes home to her family in Minnesota. She left her cell phone number with the travelers and when she next hears from one of them that summer, Pilate's gang is in full swing and headed in a north easterly direction across the country. Pilate's gang is as bad or worse than Manson's and this draws Lucas into the case. Pilate is from L.A. and used to doing his crime binges there. We criss cross through South Dakota, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Michigan's Upper Peninsula as Lucas and Letty follow the gang. I loved the UP part of the story especially. I've been to the UP in Michigan. You have to be incredibly hearty and hale to live there. There are all outdoors people. They all own a gun and know how to use guns. There is a huge amount of land comprising the UP with only 3% of the state of Michigan living there. This is not where you go to live if you are a wimp. Its summers are cool, when this story takes place, and its winters are brutal. Added into this mix is a bunch of people called jugaloos who travel all around staging festivals where they don face paint, play music, hang out and a fair amount of dope is smoked.
