Customer Reviews

I bought this thinking it would have some new positions, new ideas, etc...I mean, it is NAMED "The Lesbian Kama Sutra". It has nothing of the sort, unless you mean 7 positions anyone would know. It doesn't even include the other 10 that any good lesbian should already know, as well. This book might be good for a 15 year old just figuring out they might be a lesbian. And even then, a book that enforces stereotypes really wasn't what I wanted to see when I was 15. The point is, if you're looking for a Lesbian Kama Sutra, don't buy this book.

this book simply does not deliver. it may be more appealing to a more mature reader who is just discovering her sexuality. as a lesbian in my late twenties, i found this book laughable. but not in a good way. some of the historical information provided was interesting, but overall i consider the material dated, largely irrelevant and not even minimally entertaining. do not purchase this book in hopes of learning new sexual techniques or to gain a revolutionary insight into your sexual identity or relationship.

The title is very misleading. Also there are some pretty drawings inside. Besides that don't buy it,you are probably better off cutting a mango in 2 and learning from that.

It is a waste of money. Not worth the money you pay for it. Needs to have a little more detail and pictures in this book.

WOW! This was a real doozy. A lot of historical information who really cares about? And other irrelevant things.

I second everything PDX said. save ur money!! I purchased it sealed at a sex store before I knew what I was buying

No real passages from the Kama Sutra just the writer saying what the Kama Sutra means in Lesbian relations. In fact the book was more a coming out as a Lesbian and here are a few lesbian positions and things to keep in mind as your life with women evolves. Nothing hardcore about the Kama Sutra really presented in this book. Look elsewhere for Lesbian Kama Sutra.
