Let Her Go

Synopsis

Perhaps even worse than unrequited love is the loss of love seasoned over time. M. Ocean explores the depths of love deeply felt and violently lost. For those whose wounds are fresh and hearts still raw with ample emotion, Ocean portrays pain and suffering in apt and heart wrenching candour.

Customer Reviews

I thoroughly enjoyed this. Although it's sad it does speak the words of a break up beautifully. Some of things said even helped me put into words about the one I love now. It was worth the free kindle unlimited read. Not sure I'd buy it though as it was too short for my liking

i have come to the acceptance that people leave and that we all have different ways of dealing with this, this book has changed me as a whole, it has helped me heal what i thought couldn't be healed. it speaks truths, it speaks volumes, it speaks to your soul,mind, and body. i absolutely adore this book

It was good, just I personally didn't relate. But overall had great metaphors and explained loneliness in a whole new perspective!!!

Great read. Heartbreak at its very worst and described in such a way that you feel like it's happening to you.

A quick read written in poetry about lost love. It sounds like a teenager after the breakup with a first love, desperate and raw.
