The Bridge To Home

Synopsis

There comes a time when you have to lose your life in order to find it. Jane May Gideon's life has been turned upside down. Divorced and estranged from her only child, she longs for a retreat from her mundane reality. Seeking peace and solace she quickly finds more than she bargained for in a sleepy little Smoky Mountain hamlet. Set against the verdant backdrop of the Southern Appalachians, The Bridge to Home finds Jane May embarking on an unexpected journey. A journey that will take her from the top of a mountain through the unexplored depths of her soul. A journey that will take her home. An angry young woman and her little boy who has a special way with animals, a kind but tortured old man with a shocking secret, the proprietor of a strange arcane shop, and a mysterious medicine woman will all play their parts in guiding Jane onto a path that she never suspected she would find.

I was instantly drawn into Jane May's soul and grief. I too had been through the agonizing turmoil of a painful mid life divorce. The serenity and beauty of the Blue Ridge Appalachian Mountains comforted my nostalgic memories of this time of my life, and I longed to return this beautiful piece of our Earth. This author is very familiar with the strength of women and weaves through the story all of the intricacies of the feminine psyche. We know what we know even when we haven't seen or heard it firsthand, but it is in our very being. The author brings the spiritual, the mystical, love, and hope to this mesmerizing story. Thank you for this book, A F Jordan.

The Bridge to Home.....this book is like no other...Ms. Jordan has given us a look into her amazing, tantalizing imagination. I couldn't put it down.. her writing style and her descriptive skills kept me pulled in..wondering always about the next curve in the trail. ..some of her sentences are like singing...others, like a blacksmith's hammer. I would love for you all to read this..it's one of those stories you need to have under your belt. ..and in your memories. Some of the phrases will come to your mind over and over....and the distant scent of Shaconage....

The Bridge to Home is a book about healing and truly finding yourself in the midst of a life change. Jordan has a wonderful way of speaking to the heart. I loved this book!
