Customer Reviews

Hoodwinked! Buyer beware. This book is split in two. Book 1 is January through June. Book 2 is July through December. The functionality to search by word and by topic is hopelessly broken by publishing this invaluable piece of recovery literature in this manner. Maybe the next evolution will be to sell individual days as separate books. Returned and refunded and kind of disgusted. Note: If these are ever re-assembled into one kindle e-book I would revise this review and purchase this book.

As another reviewer mentioned, this book is split into two issues. The pricing comes out to about the same as one book would so I am very unclear as to why it is like this. Having it in two books makes searching for specific topics difficult to say the least. I was not happy whenever I found this out but I have accepted that it is how it is. The contents of the book (both halves) is too important and precious for me not to purchase both copies. If it were all in one book, I would gladly give it 5 stars.

It is great to have this daily reader on my Kindle app on my phone or on my Kindle itself. It is searchable but the index that is in the hard cover book is not in this digital copy. That is a bit of a draw back because sometimes the index referenced pages for topics that didn't have the specific word on the page but was the general meaning of the word. It's still a good book and doesn't stop me from enjoying it.

Don't like that this is in two editions but I had read the reviews and knew that. The other problem is that there are no page numbers so when asked to go to a certain page, I always have to ask what the section or date is. This is annoying to me and probably others as well.

The book is great -10 stars minimum. But it does not work well with my old Kindle. Why? Because there is an index at the back that is critical for book study, and there is no way in Kindle to reference a specific page. I am going to have to get a hard copy

I own all of the Al-Anon books in hard cover and the available ones for my Kindle. I love them all but Courage to Change is my favorite daily reader and I am so happy that it is available for Kindle. Don't understand why it was put into two books, but oh well. I saw that someone had a problem with the fact that there is no index, but you can search for any topic and it will bring up the pages for that topic. Love having it in electronic form.

The stars are for the book itself!!! My only complaint is that they divided the book into 2 parts...Jan-June and July-Dec...so to get the complete book you need to buy it twice! This seems weird but I guess the motto "Let go and let God" applies.

I prefer this to other Al-Anon daily readers, although I own the others, as well. This one is my go to. The Index by Topic at the back of the book is ideal for when one is looking for wisdom on a specific topic.
